ABOUT THE MISSISSIPPI THEATRE ASSOCIATION

The Mississippi Theatre Association has been in business under its present structure since the early 1970's, but dates back to the mid 1950's as the Mississippi Little Theatre Association. The organization serves primarily as a sanctioning organization for the Festival and Convention and the College Theatre Festival under the wider aegis of the Southeastern Theatre Conference, the American Association of Community Theatres and the Kennedy Center American College Theatre Festival. (SETC, AACT and MTA/KC/ACTF as they are more widely known). Each year, community theatres and selected secondary schools meet for a festival of short plays in a juried format, evaluated by judges from out of state, who select one high school and one community theatre presentation to attend the SETC convention. A concurrent children's festival showcases children's productions to elementary schoolchildren in the host community.

COMMUNITY THEATRE FESTIVAL RULES / GUIDELINES

Who May Enter:

- Any amateur community theatre company is eligible to participate if it meets the following criteria:
 - a. For competition at the Regional and National levels, “amateur community theatre” is characterized by its operation as a “non-profit organization.”
 - b. The community theatre must have been organized in Mississippi for at least one year prior to the state festival and must have produced at least two (2) shows prior to their state entry.
 - i. For establishing the date a community theatre was organized, documents acceptable by AACT include the organization’s charter and/or the organization’s bylaws.
 - ii. These documents must be sent to the Community Theatre Chair prior to competing in the MTA Festival.
 - iii. Any theatre advancing from MTA risks disqualification if their organizational structure was not in place twelve (12) months prior to their participation in the state festival.
 - c. The community theatre must have a decision-making Board from its community; or, in the case of a community theatre that is run by city / county recreational departments, it has an advisory board from its community. A community theatre connected with a university, college, or military theatre must have a governing board from the community.
 - d. The community theatre must be characterized by its operation as a “non-profit organization,” with full 501(c)3 status registered with the state of Mississippi. Any theatre advancing from MTA risks disqualification if they do not meet the “not for profit” standard established by AACT.

Not Permitted to Perform

1. Actors that are active members of Actors Equity and receive more than one quarter of their annual income from work as actors.
2. Any person who receives more than half of their annual income from work as an actor.

3. The National host theatre or any group affiliated therewith.
4. Once a play is in rehearsal for the state festival competition, actors and technicians may not be paid, directly or indirectly, to rehearse or perform in that production.
 - a. This does not preclude members of the “production staff”, such as directors, designers, costumers, technical directors, etc. from receiving normal remuneration so long as no part is paid specifically for their “hands on” production efforts.
 - b. Musicians who only provide accompaniment for a production, and do not perform, directly or indirectly, are exempt from this requirement (i.e. they may be paid).

What May Be Presented

1. Productions entered in a Festival may be a cutting of a full-length play or musical, a one act play, or any other performance of a theatrical nature which are subject to additional rules listed in Section C, below.
2. The total length of each individual production, including introductions and time lapses between scenes, may not exceed 60 minutes.
3. If a performing company elects to have a curtain call, it must be included within the 60 minutes performance time.
4. In addition, each production is allowed a maximum of 10 minutes setup time and 10 minutes strike time.
 - a. If a setup and/or strike is intended to set mood, establish character, or entertain the audience in any way, this time will be considered a part of the 60 minutes performance time.
 - b. Any lighting change; sound, whether recorded or live; movement (other than to a preset position on-stage) etc., will begin the 60 minutes. Similarly, only the complete cessation of such will complete this timing period.
5. The “Production Process” (Set-up/Production/Strike) should continue without significant delay until complete.
6. Should a production exceed any time limits, the performance will not be stopped.
 - a. Neither adjudicators nor the performing group will be informed of the “overtime”.
 - b. Productions exceeding any of the established time limits will be ineligible for selection as the winning production but are eligible for all other awards.
7. This must be the first performance of the production in an adjudicated theatre festival within the state of Mississippi in the year preceding the festival.
8. The winning production at MTA must be performed in the same form at Regional and National levels.
 - a. No actor, production staff, or technicians may be substituted, nor may material be added or withdrawn without written consent from the Festival Commission Chair.
 - b. For personnel change, request must be because of relocation, disability or similar hardship and must be legitimate, not for purposes of changing the show.
 - c. Adjustments in staging may be made to allow for differences in stage facilities.

Other Production Rules

1. Any announcements or introductions must be made prior to setup or after strike; the overall continuity of production must not be interrupted.
2. Once production has begun, the house must be closed, but it should remain open during setup and strike.
3. Once in progress, a production may not be stopped or interrupted except for reasons of:
 - a. Public Safety – such as electrical outages, weather alert tornado, flood, etc.) or other “Acts of God”; or
 - b. Problems with Host Facility – such as equipment malfunction, working from wrong cue-book or disk, etc., which are temporary in nature and particularly affect the overall quality of the production.
 - c. Only the Host Facility Coordinator (this may be the Festival Chair) may determine and declare a Public Safety Problem.
 - d. The designated representative of the production company may also declare a problem with the Host Facility.
 - i. In such a case, the Festival Representative will immediately investigate the seriousness of the problem and its likely impact on the production.

- ii. If this declaration is denied, the production will be tallied last, similar to going over time.
- iii. In any case, the production may begin again from the point of interruption or the beginning, at the choice of the production's representative (subject to local conditions & time restraints.)
- iv. NOTE: Problems with the Host Facility should be invoked in only the most outrageous of circumstances. A missed lighting cue, noisy audience member, etc., are not grounds to declare a problem.

Requirement to Participate

Before performing at the MTA Festival each participating theatre is required to submit to the Community Division Chair:

- 1. Proof of permission from the leasing agent and/or author to perform the play of its choice as it will be performed (i.e. as cut if relevant).

- 3. Proof of rights to use any relevant copyrighted music or media.

 - iii. In both of these cases, the proof of permission must state the situation justifying a photocopy.
- 5. Such non-refundable entry fee as may be required when the contest notice is published.
 - a. If a theatre registers and then removes itself from the competition, the entry fees will not be returned.
 - b. If a larger number of theatres register than slots are allotted, a refund will be made.
- 6. The attached Entry / Information sheet.

Facilities of the Host Theatre

- 1. The host must provide a proper theatre facility; one that is primarily intended for theatrical performances. - 2. The MTA Host theatre shall provide or make available:
 - a. A minimum, basic lighting plot (Festival "lighting hang") that will include individually controlled cool and warm wash areas of eight (8) to ten (10) feet in dimension and such other instrumentation as necessary to completely illuminate the stage.
 - b. Six (6) dimmers or circuits for special lighting requirements for each performing group.
- 3. Special lighting and special effects ("specials") are the responsibility of the entrant and permission for their use must be obtained from the host theatre.
 - a. If the host provides lighting specials, they must be made available to all participants.
 - b. Lighting specials may NOT exceed six (6) instruments in total whether furnished by the entrant and/or the host.
 - c. These specials may be set up during the company's scheduled rehearsal period with instrument placement coordinated by the host theatre.
 - d. Any instrumentation, i.e. ellipsoidal, strobe, scene machine, scoop, strip lights, etc., plugged in one circuit shall be construed as one (1) special. In the case of scoops or strip lighting instrumentation, each grouping shall be considered as one (1) special, even though several color changes may be used.
 - e. It is the responsibility of the host technical director to strike and replug light specials as necessary between productions.
- 4. Nonlighting specials such as flash pot, fog machine, sound, etc., are not limited by any specific number, but must be provided by the entrant, and like all scenic units must be set up and struck within the allotted ten (10) minutes setup and strike time.

- a. If nonlighting specials require setup in the “House” of the performing center, these specials may be allowed by the Host Theatre and placed during the rehearsal period subject to the requirements of the next paragraph.
- b. Any special sound effects, beyond the standard sound setup (Festival Sound Setup) provided by the Host Theatre, are the sole responsibility of the entrant.
5. If the entrant elects to supplement existing equipment, the Host Theatre will determine whether the placement of cables, microphones, speakers, etc., are detrimental to other performing groups. If it is deemed to be detrimental, then this equipment must be setup and struck within the standard setup and strike time.
6. Each participating theatre is responsible for furnishing any sets, props or furniture needed for its production. The Host Theatre may provide standard articles of furniture if requested to do so in advance.
7. The Host Theatre will allot each entrant off stage storage
 - a. The amount of space is a minimum of 10' x 10'.
 - b. Two similar “on deck” spaces will also be provided, but may vary in location from festival to festival, as the Host Theatre conditions dictate.
 - c. The entrant will be permitted to preassemble any portion of his set provided that this assembly never exceeds the allotted space.
 - i. The participating group will schedule assembly time at the convenience of the host personnel.
 - ii. These spaces adjoin the performance area; it is from this location that productions “setup” to the performance area and “strike” there from.
8. No scenic devices (with the exception of light and allowed house specials), sound effects, or other items related to the production may be hung, placed, or positioned in the playing areas prior to the 10-minute setup time. Participating groups must plan their set storage according to specifications.
9. Equipment operation by performing groups is at the Host's option.

Rehearsal Time and Performance Order

Disqualification

Failure to comply with festival rules will be grounds for disqualification. The decision of the Board of Directors is final.

Censorship

1. MTA supports a policy permitting the widest possible range of dramatic material to be performed in the festival. Performing companies are expected to exercise taste, good judgment, and respect for the values of their Host Theatres.

Waiver Procedure

In any case where a waiver of rules or requirements may be sought, such must be in writing (to the Division Chair) and contain adequate detail as to the reason thereof. This may be as to participation, facilities, scheduling difficulties, adjudication or any other, but must always meet the general test of a “level playing field.”

COMMUNITY THEATRE DIVISION GOALS

- 1. To provide an optimum learning experience through festival participation at state, regional, and national levels, which will affirm, support, and nurture participating community theatre companies as they strive toward excellence in theatrical production.

- 3. To provide learning experience in artistic and technical areas for community theatre people in attendance through performance, adjudication and workshops.
- 4. To develop enlightened and discerning audiences for community theatre.

COMMUNITY THEATRE FESTIVAL GUIDELINES FOR ADJUDICATION

Three out-of-state adjudicators will judge Community Theatre Festival entries. Guidelines for adjudicators has been taken from the American Association of Community Theatres' Handbook.

Judges will adhere to the following criteria:

1. Plays are to be judged on the overall production-- the major elements of which are ACTING and DIRECTING.
2. The choice of material is to be as unlimited as possible.
3. To overcome the seeming difficulty of comparing musicals, revues, avant garde, "controversial," and dramatic material, entries should be judged on how fully ALL production values and criteria below are realized.
4. Because of the difficulties of touring, such as an unfamiliar stage, the host technical crew, minimal rehearsal time and potentially long distance travel, participating groups should consider the technical aspects of performing "on the road" when choosing a selection.
5. It should be noted that a blank stage or a complex set can be equally effective, if appropriate to the material attempted.
6. Technical competence is to be given consideration as to its effectiveness as an integral part of the total production experience

7. Among the criteria to be considered are:
 - a. Is the acting believable?
 - b. Is the acting technically skillful?
 - c. Are the characters well interpreted?
 - d. Does the company display ensemble work?
 - e. Is the material appropriate for the company?
 - f. Is the concept appropriate for the material?
 - g. How well is the concept realized by the company?
 - h. Do the actors display effective timing?
 - i. How well has the structure of the play been controlled?
 - j. How effective are movement and stage pictures?
 - k. Is the play well paced?
 - l. Do the technical elements support the overall production?
 - m. How effective was the total impact?
8. See the attached response form.

COMMUNITY THEATRE FESTIVAL AWARDS

- Outstanding Achievement in Acting
 - a. Each theatre should receive at least one Outstanding Achievement in Acting award.
 - b. Recipients of Outstanding Achievement in Acting awards should not receive another acting award, such as Best Actor/Actress. They should only receive one.
- Special Recognition Awards – Adjudicators may use these awards to create categories for special recognition in areas not otherwise provided for. Examples: Excellence in Make-up, Props, Sound Design, Original Playwriting, Choreography etc.

- Best Costume Design

SAMPLE LETTER TO COMMUNITY THEATRE DIVISION FESTIVAL ADJUDICATORS

MISSISSIPPI THEATRE ASSOCIATION 2020 ANNUAL FESTIVAL

Dear Community Theatre Adjudicator:

As this year's MTA Community Theatre Division chair, I would like to personally welcome you to Mississippi for the 2020 MTA State festival! We are so excited to have you in Oxford for this exciting event; our festival would not be the incredible learning experience that it is for so many of our Mississippi theatre-makers without your constructive responses. I very much look forward to seeing you in January!

You will find included in this envelope copies of our four festival plays, marked as edited with permission by the licensing companies and/or playwrights: The Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane, adapted by Dwayne Hartford from the book by Kate DiCamillo (Center Players); Night Mother, by Marsha Norman (Tupelo Community Theatre); A Public Reading of an Unproduced Screenplay about the Death of Walt Disney, by Lucas Hnath (Starkville Community Theatre); and The Rocky Horror Show by Richard O'Brien (Corinth Theatre-Arts).

There are several important players in the Community Festival this year. In addition to our Executive Director, Stacy Howell, and the current MTA President, Tim Matheny, Michael Barnett is the Ole Miss Theatre and Film department host extraordinaire, and Fel Macias will be serving as the Meek Auditorium Technical Director. Bobby Geno currently serves on the MTA Board of Directors as the Community Division Vice Chair, and Sharissa Smith will be our college Dream Team volunteer.

Please review the enclosed copies of the Community Division festival schedule and guidelines. We will hold an adjudicators meeting during the lunch break on Friday (12:00 noon, January 17). At this meeting, we will discuss festival rules and expectations, and Bobby and I - as well as MTA's current Vice President Juniper Wallace - will be available to answer any of your questions.

Bobby, Sharissa, and I will be on site throughout the festival to answer any questions and to assist as we are able. We are excited about the great art that our Mississippi theatre community is making, and we are thrilled to have you with us at our state festival this year!

Don't hesitate to reach out with questions, comments, or concerns; I'm available by email and cell phone (text messages probably get the fastest response).

Sincerely,

11. Call on each production to begin:
 - a. State the name of the school and ask "are you ready?"

Stay mindful that this position means that sometimes the Chair and Vice Chair will have to miss performances, be back stage, or do work at the festival that separates them from the main festival events. Bear in mind that these positions are to better the organization and not the individual interest of the Chair or Vice Chair.

SECONDARY FESTIVAL RULES AND GUIDELINES

1. Schools will assigned specific load-in times and held responsible for adhering to the festival schedule.
 - a. Each school will have five (5) minutes to load in from their truck / vehicle to the designated loading area and will have ten (10) minutes to move from the loading area to their 10x10 box.

2. MTA and regional festival hosts will return both the written evaluation forms and the score sheets from the adjudicators to each participating school.
 - a. Participating schools will receive these documents following the close of the Awards Ceremony.
 - b. If participating schools are obligated to leave prior to the Awards Ceremony, the forms will be emailed to the primary contact's email address provided at the time of registration..
3. The MTAAwards Ceremony will announce the third-place production and note that this school will represent Mississippi at SETC in the case that one of the advancing schools is unable to attend.
 - a. This award will be announced before the announcement of the runner-up and winning production.
 - b. The third-place production will receive a physical award.
4. Prior to performance the school may move their items up to the Go Line.
 - a. The Go Line will be indicated by taped lines on the floor in the back and wings.
 - b. Schools will preset their items during the adjudication time of the previous performance.
 - c. The presetting of all items to the Go Line must be done in absolute silence and must not be seen by the audience. We insist on not disturbing the adjudication time. Out of fairness, we require the same procedure for the first show of the block even though there is not an adjudication in progress.
5. Official time begins when the festival director says "go" after the school's response.
 - a. The school is allotted 45 minutes to setup from the Go Line, perform, and strike the set to behind the Go Line.
 - b. A designated representative from each school will be instructed to call "clear" once everything has passed the Go Line.
 - c. Official time will then be stopped and recorded.

6. A second time will begin from the “clear” call.
 - a. The school will have 5 minutes to reset their production items back into the 10x10 block and to make their way to the front row of the auditorium for adjudication.
 - b. Adjudication time will begin after the allotted 5-minute strike time has ended.
7. The reset back to the 10x10 box runs just like it did before. Everything must fit in the 10x10 at the reset.
8. It is important in order for the festival to remain on schedule.
 - a. Producing organizations should rehearse the reset to the box so as not to exceed the allotted time.
 - b. Producing organizations should also practice the preset to the Go Line in order to be as efficient and unobtrusive to the adjudication as possible.
9. The dividing line between the North and South will be I-20. Any school North of I-20 will go to the festival at Mississippi State University and any school South of I-20 will go to the University of Southern Mississippi Festival.
10. Both regional festivals will cap the number of productions at 17. This does not include observing schools.
11. Each regional festival will advance four (4) productions to the State Festival.
 - a. If a region has fifteen (15) or more participating schools, the adjudicators have the discretion of advancing five (5) productions to the State Festival.
 - b. This does not include observing schools attending the festival.
12. A drop fee will be added to each regional festival to deter schools from dropping out at the last minute.

SECONDARY GUIDELINES FOR ADJUDICATION

1. Three out of state adjudicators will judge secondary theatre entries.
2. The central role of the adjudicator is to provide useful critical feedback, in a thoughtful, caring way. Adjudicators should provide feedback that helps participants grow as artists and people, through enriched understanding of their own collaborative work.
3. All adjudicators will be asked to participate in a festival adjudicators meeting where the Secondary Chair and MTA President will answer questions and clarify expectations.
4. Public adjudication happens at the conclusion of each production in the festival.
 - a. Adjudication will not exceed 15 total minutes, with each adjudicator being afforded 5 minutes of verbal feedback.
 - b. Responses should consist of a positive general assessment of each production and should include the adjudicator's strongest impression of specific elements of the production.
 - c. Constructive criticism should be coupled with positive reinforcement.
5. Best practices for all adjudication include:
 - a. Positive reinforcement to each performing school group about the strengths of their work alongside constructive, critical feedback to help the artists grow.
 - b. Clear suggestions and observations about how the work could be stronger.
 - i. Provide questions for the artists to consider and answer for themselves.
 - ii. Provide concrete proposals or creative alternatives.
 - c. Specific, detailed commentary about all theatrical elements.
 - i. Where possible, provide specific examples and observation about as many participant roles as are applicable
 - ii. Participant roles may include but are not limited to design, direction, performance, writing, music, choreography
 - iii. As possible, address how the multiple elements work together in each production.
 - d. Sensitivity to the participants and acknowledgment of challenges and limitations faced by the performing group.

- e. Admission of subjectivity.
 - i. Remind artists that adjudicators are selected for their expertise and have credible insight to offer.
 - ii. Remind artists that each adjudicator also has their own tastes, preferences, and perspectives.
 - iii. The job of the artist is to listen, consider the feedback, and determine for themselves what is most valuable; remind artists that they are not obligated to agree with or execute all of your ideas and comments.
 - f. Awareness of diversity.
 - i. Be mindful of your own assumptions about the students you meet and work against those assumptions during the adjudication process.
 - ii. Be cognizant of the words you choose to talk about the members of a company.
 - iii. Consider what pronouns you use to describe particular roles in the theatre. (E.g. Directors are not always “he;” costume designers are not always “she,” etc.)
 - iv. Remember that student participants have a range of abilities and that not all artists will receive adjudication the same way.
 - g. Should you find yourself needing to address themes or experiences with which you do not have personal experience, feel free to ask questions.
 - i. “What were you hoping to do with [this specific moment]?” or “What was your intention with [a specific choice]?”
 - ii. Do not hesitate to amend previous statements or recommendations in light of new information or understanding. This models learning and adapting to new knowledge for our young artists.
6. Elements to Consider as Adjudicating:
- a. MTA has divided the adjudicator response sheets into three overarching categories: Performance, Direction, and Design.
 - i. The sub-categories in the response sheets should guide respondents’ feedback, but should in no way be considered a finite list of areas available for response.
 - ii. The questions provided under each category below are suggestions to consider as respondents formulate responses and may also serve as questions to ask performing groups about their work.
 - iii. No production should be penalized for less or more of a particular element. A bare stage may support a concept as effectively as a large-scale, realized scenic design. Adjudicators should evaluate the effectiveness of the choices to the concept of the production.
 - b. Overall Production
 - i. How effectively has the production team worked with limited resources?
 - ii. Are the resources available to the production effectively employed to serve the story?
 - iii. Does there appear to have been a coherent vision for the production that all collaborators appear to understand/

 - » If there are accents or dialects employed: Does the voice work support the overall vision of the selection? Are the accents accurate to their point of reference / origin? Is accented voice work comprehensible and effective?
 - ii. Movement

- » How successfully have the actors physicalized and internalized the characters they are portraying or the roles they are performing?
- » What do you notice about actors' physicality?
- » If there is choreography: How well is it executed by the performers? How the performers move together / how does a dancer move in relationship to other actors?
- iii. Characterization
 - » What clear choices have been made about the development of the characters?

 - » Who is the writer / creator of the play?
 - » What kinds of challenges does the script / content offer the participants in the production process?
 - » How did the company serve the material they selected?
 - » What is the potential social or artistic impact of the material?
 - ii. Concept
 - » How well has the director understood the play / material / subjects of exploration?
 - » How well has the director guided the audience to enter the world of the play and understand the rules within it or suspend their disbelief?
 - » How has the director collaborated with designers to guide how the elements work in relationship to each other?
 - » Has the director guided or provided a unique or unusual interpretation of the piece?
 - iii. Staging
 - » Do the actors move in space with purpose and in relationship to each other?
 - » Have the director's choices communicated time and place?
 - » Is the blocking reasonable and well-motivated? Has the director considered sight-lines and stage pictures?
 - » If there is choreography: How does the expression in the dance advance the storytelling or define the world of the piece?
 - iv. Pace / Timing

- » Are the transitions tight or flowing and as well-considered as the other action of the piece?

 - » Are there missing elements or alternative choices worth exploring?
 - iii. Execution Quality of Design Elements
 - » Are all design elements safe for performers?
 - » Are the design elements adaptable to a variety of venues?
 - » How much care and detail has been worked into the design elements?
 - » Is the construction of the design elements remarkable in any way?
 - iv. Operation Quality of Design Elements
 - » Are elements used effectively?
 - » Are cues well-timed and well-executed?
 - v. Actor Interaction with Design Elements

The 10-Minute Play Festival is designed to give students the opportunity to explore different aspects of the theatre process. The festival provides opportunities for students to express themselves, challenge their artistic abilities, and hone their skills.

REGIONAL 10 MINUTE / DEvised THEATRE FESTIVALS

- The 10-Minute / Devised Theatre Festival provides an opportunity for students to expand their horizons and hone their skills.
- The Kennedy Center states that, “devising is loosely defined as the process of collaboratively creating a new work without a pre-existing script wherein the collaborators are also the performers. In the standard theatre model, a single playwright writes the text and then a director casts actors and selects designers to interpret that text, resulting in a theatre production. With devised theatre, however, the collective artists begin without a script. A devised piece of theatre can literally start with anything: a painting, a song, a real-life event, a novel to adapt, a prompt, etc. Multiple ways to devise exist. However, a deep study of devising shows that many companies’ processes include five key stages: research, creation, development, rehearsal, and performance.”
- MTA will host 3 regional 10-Minute / Devised Theatre Festivals.
- This year’s focus will be Devised Theatre for Change where students will have the opportunity to engage in and promote discourse on challenging topics.
- Each participating school will be allowed three (3) teams of six (6) individuals.
 - a. Teams must have six (6) members.
 - b. Incomplete teams will be ineligible to participate.
 - c. At the festival, students will then be sorted into new groups of six (6), all from different schools.
 - d. Participants will have 9½ hours to devise and rehearse their production, which will be performed at 6:00 PM the same evening.
- Each region may host a maximum of eight (8) participating groups of six (6) students.
- Schools may choose which regional festival they would like to attend, but once a region’s event is full, schools will be referred to another region that has openings available or have the option to withdraw.

JANET

Norm? Is that you?

She looks over her shoulder and a light flicks on in the kitchen.

Lighting:

1. Performances should be easy to see!
2. Performers are encouraged to situate their camera between themselves and two separated light sources - a combination of lamps and natural light are effective.

2. Entrants should listen to their audio playback prior to submitting their video.
3. Performers should record themselves in a space that enhances vocal clarity and minimizes echo and excessive background noise.

- Material must be drawn from published plays or musicals. Works from other literary forms such as poetry, fiction, stand up/sketch comedy, or song lyrics are not permitted.
- Entrants will be required to identify the company that holds the rights to the play or musical from which their material is selected.
- Entries in design categories may but are not obligated to come from fully-realized productions.
 - a. All design entries must be wholly the work of the entrant.
 - i. If a student was part of a design team on a show, they cannot submit that collaborative design as their entry into the Individual Events Festival.
 - ii. If a student was part of a design team but can clearly identify the work that is wholly their own, they may submit that as their entry into the Individual Events Festival.
 - b. Students may opt to create a theoretical design. Adjudicators should evaluate the design elements provided in the submission and must not penalize students for creating designs that have not yet been in production.
- Selections should be appropriate to the entrants and should provide interest, intelligibility, and literary value.
- Entrants should demonstrate evidence of understanding in regards to the selection's context and intent.
- Entrants should use discretion in regards to language and subject matter.
 - a. Directors will attest that they have seen and approved the material their students are producing and that it appropriately reflects the standards of the student's school and community.
 - b. Adjudicators should direct concerns about content to the Individual Events Chair and should in NO CASE address a competitor directly with concerns about the content of their selection.
 - c. MTA supports a policy permitting the widest possible range of dramatic material and is not responsible for the perceived decency of selections that students enter in the Individual Events Festival.
- No student may enter any Individual Event with a selection that their school is bringing to any MTA-sponsored festival during the current school year.
- No student may enter any Individual Event with a selection that their school brought to any MTA-sponsored festival during the previous school year.
