MERIDIAN — Tupelo Community Theatre has had lots of reasons to celebrate in January. Not only did the non-profit community theater take home awards for their production of "Pvt. Wars" — including the Darren McDaniel Award for Best Production as well as All-Star Cast — the show's director, TCT executive director Tom Booth, received the 2016 Stephen Cunetto Award, named in honor of the former MTA executive director.

Booth was recognized by Mississippi Theatre

Booth

Association Festival hosted in Meridian on Jan. 17 for his outstanding service to the MTA and theater in Mississippi.

The MTA Board of Directors selects an individual who has significantly added to the successful operation of MTA and someone who has promoted theater throughout the State of Mississippi. The board looks at actions that reflect a positive image, regional recognition, long tenure and program establishment and/or administrative service.

According to current MTA executive director Stacy Howell, the board of directors voted unanimously to bestow the organization's highest award on Booth.

"Booth has been a director, mentor and friend not only to Tupelo Community Theatre but to many people throughout the state of Mississippi, the Southeast and even nationally through his participation with the Southeastern Theatre Conference and the American Association of Community Theatres," Howell said.

Booth has served as the executive director of TCT for 15 years. His involvement with TCT started when he auditioned for a role in "Ponder Heart" in 1985 and his level of involvement increased quickly when Booth discovered his passion for directing. Booth was hired as the theater's first full-time business manager in 2002.

"The MTA Board is appreciative of Booth's dedication to theater and his commitment to theater in Mississippi," MTA President Crouse. "This award could not go to a more deserving individual."

Booth and his troupe will now advance "Pvt. Wars" to the Southeastern Theatre Conference in Greensboro, North Carolina, in March.

We were fortunate to be able to spend a little time with the queen, Margaret Anne Murphy, last night at the NMSO Gala. I have always had so much respect for what Dr. Gene and Margaret Ann have done in our community for the arts.

It feels surreal to be rehearsing a show that we are taking to Tupelo for MTA, knowing that Tom Booth is no longer with us. I've known him about as long as I have known my SCT colleagues. I could feel from an hour down the road how excited he was for this weekend. It is so sudden. And so sad. But I hope this whole weekend does him proud. I'll miss him at this MTA and in everyone in the future. He was an integral part of my whole theatre experience here in Mississippi. Condole...
