

For Immediate Release

Contact: Lindsey Eubanks, Executive Director
execdir@mississippitheatre.org

Mississippi Theatre Association Receives Mississippi Arts Commission Grant

JACKSON, MISS. – July 8, 2024 – The Mississippi Theatre Association of (Flowood, MS) has been awarded a $10,800 grant from the Mississippi Arts Commission. This grant is a portion of the more than $1.7 million in grants MAC awarded in Fiscal Year 2025. With these funds, MTA will work to foster a community where art is deeply valued, leveraging the transformative power of theatre. The grant will support a range of initiatives, including workshops, and educational programs, and more. These efforts will be driven by MTA's commitment to advocacy, communication, and education, ensuring that theatre remains a vibrant and essential part of Mississippi's cultural landscape.

The MTA is a statewide organization that acts as an advocate to government agencies, businesses and the public; sponsors festivals, workshops, and networking opportunities; communicates with members and the public, recognizes excellence in performance and production; and sanctions representatives to regional festivals.

“Mississippi is synonymous with the quality of art that emanates from our state. The arts enhance the quality of life and local economies,” said David Lewis, executive director for the Mississippi Arts Commission. “With the generous support from the Mississippi Legislature, we can activate our citizens’ innate creativity and invest in our communities.”

MAC’s annual grant funds come from the National Endowment for the Arts and the Mississippi State Legislature. Awards were made in 92 Mississippi House of Representatives districts and 52 state Senate districts.

The Mississippi Arts Commission is a state agency serving more than two million people through grants and special initiatives that enhance communities, assist artists and arts organizations, promote arts education, and celebrate Mississippi’s cultural heritage. MAC is funded by the Mississippi Legislature, the National Endowment for the Arts, the Mississippi Endowment for the Arts at the Community Foundation for Mississippi, and other private sources. For more information, visit www.arts.ms.gov.

For information about the Mississippi Arts Commission, please contact Ellie Banks, Communications Director, 601-359-6546 or ebanks@arts.ms.gov.